

The Bee Improvement and Bee Breeders Association (BIBBA) Privacy Statement

BIBBA aims to protect the privacy of our members.

Any information supplied to BIBBA (such as when you register or pay subscriptions) may be held in paper or electronic format, and may also be stored on internet servers such as GoogleDocs, and may therefore be transferred outside the European Economic Area and to the United States of America for the purposes of processing and maintenance.

By submitting your information to us, you expressly consent to this transfer.

If you choose to provide us with personal information, be assured that BIBBA will not intentionally distribute or sell that information to anyone outside of BIBBA. By giving us information, you do consent to BIBBA's collection and use of the information you send. You understand that we may transmit information over public networks that may be accessed by third parties, and BIBBA will not be liable for any such unauthorised disclosure. Further, you understand that BIBBA may, at its discretion, use third-party service providers to administer Web servers and to store such information on back-up disks, and that a service provider may without BIBBA's knowledge permit an unauthorised third party to do so on its behalf.

The details supplied by members will be made available to all committee members.

By default, this information will also be made available to the general membership, on the understanding that these details will be treated in confidence.

Those members who do not wish to share their full information with the general membership should write to the membership secretary. In this case, we will endeavour to share only their name with other members. However, we cannot be held liable for any inadvertent disclosure, nor for any consequences thereof.

About our Web site
